Dear Parents and Carers,

To celebrate World Book Day, we will be welcoming two very special visitors on Monday 11th March.

Mark Sanders is a local author who writes stories about the adventures of his dog, Monty. Mark will be spending time reading his books and talking to the children about his life as an author. The children will also be able to meet Monty the Newfoundland dog!

I am sure the children will have lots of fun and may even be inspired to write stories about their own pets or families. Who knows, maybe we will discover a future famous author in our midst?

The children will be able to order signed, dedicated and 'pawtagraphed' copies of Mark's books after the visit.

If you would like to have a look at the books and find out all about Mark and Monty, please visit his website: www.montydogge.com

Yours sincerely,

L Derbyshire
